

A&P appoints Bank of Communications Macau Branch as Distributor of the A&P Macau Patacas Money Market Fund

Macau, 19 January 2026

Strengthening access to regulated MOP-denominated liquidity solutions in Macau

A&P Investment Fund Management Company Limited (“A&P”) today announced the appointment of Bank of Communications Macau Branch as an official distributor of the A&P Macau Patacas Money Market Fund (the “Fund”).

This appointment expands the Fund’s distribution network following its launch with Bank of China (Macau) Ltd as A&P’s first distributor. With Bank of Communications Macau Branch joining the network, investors in Macau will have an additional established banking channel through which to access the Fund.

Launched in 2024 as the first public fund introduced in Macau, the Fund is denominated in Macau Patacas (MOP) and is designed with a focus on liquidity and capital stability within the local money market environment. A&P believes that credible MOP-denominated fund options, supported by trusted distribution, are essential infrastructure for a deeper and more durable local fund ecosystem.

Statement from Management

“We are pleased to welcome Bank of Communications Macau Branch as a distributor of the Fund,” said Mr Bernardo T. Alves, Founder and Chairman of A&P. “Our objective is to strengthen the role of the Macau Pataca by expanding regulated MOP-denominated investment options and building a deeper local fund ecosystem. Markets mature when access becomes routine and standards become habit. With Bank of Communications Macau Branch, we have taken an important step forward by giving individual and institutional investors in Macau an additional trusted channel to access the Fund, while reinforcing the market infrastructure that supports long-term investor confidence.”

Mr Abraham Kot, Chief Executive Officer of A&P, added: “We will work closely with Bank of Communications Macau Branch to support high standards of investor service and operational discipline, with clear communications and timely reporting aligned with the Fund’s mandate.”
